

Table of Contents

SESSION 1

I. Definition and Purpose	1-1
Why Evaluate Performance?	1-1
History	1-1
Overview	1-1
II. Performance Calculations	1-3
Dollar-Weighted Rate of Return	1-3
Time-Weighted Rate of Return	1-4
The Difference between Time-Weighted and Dollar-Weighted Returns	1-5
Approximating Time-Weighted Returns	1-6
Accuracy of Linked, Dollar-Weighted Returns	1-8
Potential Problems in Calculating Returns	1-8
Valuing Portfolios: Accrual versus Cash Accounting, Trade versus Settlement Date	1-8
Annualizing Returns	1-9
Returns Net of Fees versus Returns Gross of Fees	1-10
III. Risk Calculations	1-12
Modern Portfolio Theory	1-12
Defining Risk: Variance, Standard Deviation, and Downside Deviation	1-12
The Capital Asset Pricing Model	1-17
Risk Premium	1-18
Beta	1-18
Alpha	1-19
Residual	1-19
R-Squared	1-19
Sharpe, Sortino, and Treynor Measures	1-20
Special Risk Measures for Bonds: Duration and Convexity	1-22
The Risk-Return Graph	1-22
Theory versus Applied MPT	1-24
Passive and Active Management	1-24
What If Everyone Invested in the Index?	1-25

Reference Articles for Session 1

Portability of Performance Records and the Use of Related Performance Information	1-26
Are Stocks Risky? Two Lessons	1-37
A Critical Review of Standard Deviation and Value at Risk for Investment Consultants	1-41
It is More than Just Performance: Tracking Error and Information Ratio	1-49
Controlling Risks Using Arbitrage Pricing Techniques	1-54
Returns-Based Style Analysis	1-58

Performance Measurement and Evaluation

SESSION 2

IV. Performance Evaluation	2-1
Benchmark Comparisons	2-1
Universe Comparisons	2-2
Portfolio Opportunity Distributions	2-3
V. Performance Attribution	2-4
Total Portfolio Attribution	2-4
Timing or Allocation Effect	2-4
Selection Effect	2-4
Segment Attribution	2-5
Effective Style Mix	2-7
Other Methods of Segment Attribution	2-7

Reference Articles for Session 2

Portfolio Opportunity Distribution and Style Analysis: A Dynamic Duo	2-8
Style Analysis: How and Why	2-10
Braking Ranks	2-12
Evaluate Skill, Not Style: An Invitation	2-16
Everything You Wanted to Know about Equity Performance Benchmarks	2-22
Manager-Based Hedge Fund Indexes: Do They Really Differ and Does It Matter?	2-33

APPENDICES

Appendix 1: IMCA Performance Reporting Standards	3-1
Appendix 2: Test Your Learning Answers	3-13